Rules:

- This is a family friendly event. Please keep that in mind with your costume and stage presence.
- Pre-register online at www.seviercountyfair.org under "Contests" Tab July 17 – August 29 or register the day of the event (August 30) in person 3:30pm to 5:00pm at the Fairest of the Fair Stage.
- For the Best Look-A-Like/Entertainer contestants will be judged on their likeness to Dolly Parton (including hair, makeup, accessories, clothing, and general appearance). Wigs are permitted. Though, this is not a talent show, contestants will be given one minute each to sing, act, and/or talk like Dolly Parton when they enter the stage. Each Contestant will be asked one general question about Dolly Parton and one minute to answer. Judges will be considering all of the above when scoring.
- Judging for the Best Look-A-Like/Entertainer will be based on numerical value in each criteria without consulting other judges.
- Judging for the Most Donations Collected will be entirely on money collected. You may begin collecting now and everyone will have time during the contest to work the crowd (in a family friendly manner) for more donations.
- All contestants should bring a purse, bag, hat, or similar to collect money from audience during the contest. Any money collected prior to contest should be put in this bag to go with what you may collect during the contest.
- Special contest for area banks and first responders. Additional information page provided to those groups.
- Contest will be held on the Fairest of the Fair Stage behind the Exhibit Hall.
- Arriving dressed in costume is recommended. Restrooms are near the stage area, but can be crowded.
- Contestants MUST be at the stage area no later than 5:30pm to line up.
- Younger division will compete first, starting at 6:00pm. Older division will be immediately after.
- Winners for both divisions will be announced at the same time.
- You do not have to be a Sevier County Resident to compete.
